Bullying

A bully can turn something like going to the bus stop or recess into a nightmare for kids. Bullying can leave deep emotional scars that last for life. And in extreme situations it can culminate in violent threats property damage or someone getting seriously hurt.

VIOLENCE

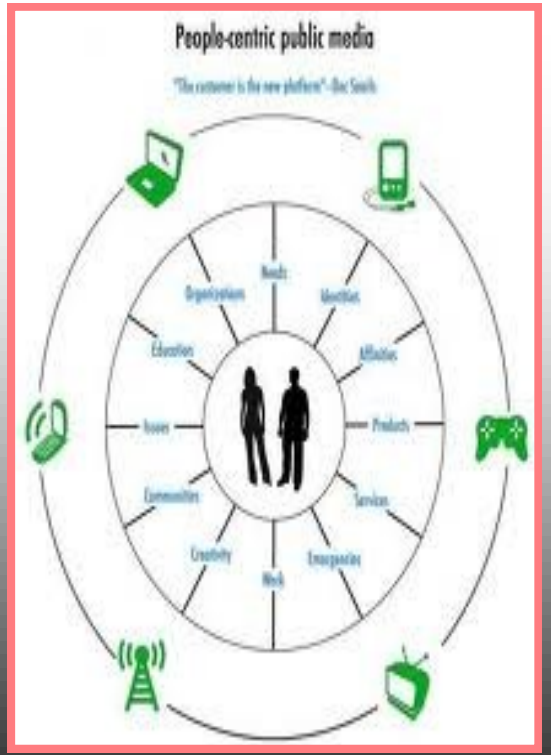
Children learn violent behaviors from their family and peers, as well as observe it in their neighborhoods and in the community at large. These behaviors are reinforced by what youth see on television, on the Internet, in video games, movies, music videos, and what they hear in their music.

Media Influence on Teenagers

Drugs

Their world is teaching them that drug use is not only normal, but risk-free. They are being taught that they can put illegal drugs into their bodies and suffer no apparent consequences.

Media is inseparable part of most teenagers life and can have a big effect on teenagers. Media (the means of communication or entertainment) is the most common way to communicate in the world. Especially through technological media like television, mobile, internet etc. The media can have both positive or negative Influence on people, especially teenagers.



The consequences, good or bad, of the influences of TV and Internet on teenagers. Teenagers nowadays are on the computer or watching TV more and more. According to a recent study, teens have an average of about 30 hours of screen time a week. That's around 4 hours and 17 minutes a day!

Media Influence on Teenagers