Media Influence on Teenagers

Have you ever wondered if too much media affects Teens?

Teens & Media

People all over the world use the media everyday. Whether it's using a computer, watching TV, reading a newspaper, talking on the phone or listening to the radio, media is a way to communicate. Through the media, you can find out about important news, listen to your favorite music or watch your favorite TV show. But there are also negative sides of the media that can be harmful specially for teens.

Positive Media Effects on Teenagers

One of the most positive effects of media today is the ease with which teenagers have learned to embrace technology – be it the computers, Internet or the iPods. The teenagers have no phobia for technology. Media has also contributed to increase the overall awareness of teenagers about their surroundings. In addition to this, media has also resulted in enhanced overall knowledge and understanding of curriculum subjects owing to the vast information resources that the media has to offer. If managed properly, media can be effectively used to generate awareness amongst teenagers.

Negative Media Effects on Teenagers

There are several negative media effects on teenagers as well. Media is responsible for creating ideals about body image, owing to which several teenagers (especially girls) suffer from inferiority complex and resort to unhealthy practices to lose weight and get skinny. The amount of excessive violence in media – be it the television, movies or the video games, tends to increase aggressive tendencies in teenagers. The amount of celebrity hype created by the media causes many children to make irrational demands for designer clothing, accessories and other perks of the celebrity life that they are exposed to. Glorification of unhealthy habits like smoking, drug abuse, unprotected sex and alcohol can encourage these habits in teenagers, which can permanently scar their lives.

MEDIA

Media Effect

Adolescence is a time of identity discovery and the decisions they make at this time of life may greatly impact their lives in the future. From television shows, magazines, video games, and music, these types of media have a bigger impact in shaping adolescents lives that many parents think. Media is an inseparable part of most teenagers life and can have a big effect on teenagers. Media (the means of communication or entertainment) is the most common way to communicate in the world.
