

Barack Obama would be a great President because he knows what he can do for this country, and he knows what he can do to help people in need. This is one of the reasons why I think he could be a good President. Also, when I watch TV, I see him making speeches and by the look of them, I can tell that he knows what he is doing. I also think he can make a difference with people, and he can be the first African-American as President. I think he will be a great President, better than John McCain. He looks like a great person because he always has a smile on his face and makes people proud when he finishes speaking. I really think that Obama will be the next President, and I think he will help us a lot in our community. John McCain has chosen a woman as his Vice Presidential running mate. Obama has chosen a man, Joe Biden. I think they will do a better job than the McCain-Palin team.
