

I think Barack Obama is going to be a good President of the United States because we haven't had an African-American person as President. Also, because I think he has some really good ideas for us, and he has a really good campaign. I also think that he is a really smart man who would think what's good for us. And in the past, he has helped a lot of people. Another thing is that he worked with law enforcement officials, and he is a U.S. senator. One of the things that I like about him is that he doesn't think about himself. He thinks about us too. If I could vote, I would definitely vote for Obama. I wouldn't ask myself twice.
