

I think Barack Obama is going to be a good President for the United States because he was nominated by a major political party for this Office. He is the first African-American to run for President. Obama attended Harvard Law School where he served as President of the Harvard Law Review. He is a good example of people with mixed heritage. I think he will make a big difference in our country. I hope that he will defeat McCain and win this position. He can be a great influence for young people. I hope that he withdraws the American troops from Iraq. Barack Obama should win.
