

I think Barack Obama will be a good President of the United States because he seems like a nice and gentle man. I also think that he will become a fair and helpful President. I would also like for him to be President because I think he will help our community much more than other Presidents before. I also think Obama is a great candidate and in my opinion, I think John McCain has no chance against him. Obama will help families with Medicare. I'm hoping that he will be our next President.
