

Yes, yes, yes we can. Barack Obama will be the best President of the United States of America, ever. He will become the first African-American President, if elected. One of the things that I like about him is that he doesn't think about himself, he thinks about us. And what he would do in the future as President will be the best for us. Another thing that I like about him is that he has some really good ideas for us, and he has a really good campaign. And that's why I would vote for him if I could.
