

I think Barack Obama would be a good President because when he speaks during the election, he does not say bad things about the people he is running against. He seems to be a very honest man. I think he should be President because he has worked hard to get where he is. And he will be the first African-American President, so I hope he wins.

Frank Porche, 7th Grade, Junior Academy, Raul Yzaguirre School For Success, Houston, Texas