

I think Barack Obama would be a good President because there will be big change in the United States. He promised he would lower the price of gasoline. He is the first African-American to be nominated by a major political party for the Office of President. I just think Obama would make a good President because he seems to be really nice, responsible, and a smart person. He also mentioned that he would help students with college so it would be a lot easier. He also said that he would lower the price of the food too. I really hope he becomes President and changes the bad to good. I would really like it if he lowers the prices because things are really getting way too expensive.
