

In my opinion, Barack Obama will be the perfect President of the United States because I know that he would help all the immigrants. He is the first African-American to be nominated for President. He will also help to prevent nuclear terrorism, and he will also bring the troops back from Iraq. Obama will be a better President than other Presidents. He will also promote universal health care as a top national priority. I know that if he becomes President, he will be the one who will return U.S. military personnel from overseas. I think that if Obama becomes President, people will be very happy, especially the immigrants. Most of the immigrants are waiting for him to be the next President.
