

I think Barack Obama should be President because he could make history by becoming the first African-American President. He could change the way things are in the African-American communities. He is much younger than John McCain. I say this because some people think McCain will probably die when he is in Office. Obama could bring the soldiers from Iraq back home all in one piece. He could lower the prices of gas and oil so people don't have to spend most of their hard earned money just driving to get their needs.
