

The computer is a machine that the whole world uses now. You can use it for a lot of things like, downloading music, making movies, finding information, and doing projects. You can even invent things with the computer. Almost everything that we have is made with computers. Videogames are made with the computer. Later on in the future, our cars are going to be able to move with the computer. That's how fast this technology advances.

Christopher Castillo, 7th grade , Raul Yzaguirre School For Success